Newsletter

February/March 2016 (P.4 - P.6)

Welcome!

I'm sure you have all had a wonderful Chinese New Year and are looking forward to working hard back at school. However, another festival, Easter, is just around the corner.

Therefore, to honour these two great festivals, the themes of this newsletter are Chinese New Year and Easter. I hope you enjoy the games and fun activities.

So, Happy Chinese New Year and a Happy Easter to you all!

Remember!

Post your finished newsletter into the box in English Avenue and you may win a special Easter gift!

Chinese New Year Riddle

I'm usually red, but occasionally gold.
People love to receive me, especially when I'm full.
What am I?

Answer: _____

The story of Nian: Put this Chinese New Year story into the correct order.

- 1) The loud noise scared Nian even more and he ran even faster.
- 2) From that day, everyone wore red clothes and let of firecrackers to scare away Nian at the end of winter each year.
- 3) The boy lived at the top of a hill and one day he walked out of his house carrying his mother's cooking pot. He came face to face with Nian.
- 4) Once upon a time, a monster called Nian would visit a village in China at the end of winter to look for people to eat.
- 5) The boy was also scared and dropped the pot. It fell with a bang and rolled down the hill making a terrible noise as it hit the stones.
- 6) The boy was wearing red clothes and when Nian saw the bright red colour, he was scared and ran away down the hill.
- 7) One day, a boy luckily discovered Nian's secret.
