Issue 2: November/December 2014 (P.4 - P.6)

Welcome!

We've been back at school for a few months now and Christmas is just around the corner. Hopefully, by now you are all back into the swing of school life and looking forward to the coming festival.

In this issue, there are many Christmas themed activities and festive information for you to enjoy. So let's practise our English and learn a little more about this special Christian holiday.

Merry Christmas and a happy New Year!

The Christmas Story

Number the pictures in the order they appear in the Christmas story.

One night, an angel came to visit Mary. She was scared, but the angel told her not to be afraid. The angel told Mary that she would have a special baby, God's son, and she was to name him Jesus. Mary quickly rushed to tell her husband, Joseph, what the angel had said.

Later Mary and Joseph, travelled to Bethlehem, but they could not find anywhere to stay, so they had to sleep in a stable. That night, Jesus was born in the stable, surrounded by animals.

When Jesus was born, a star shone brightly over Bethlehem. Many people saw the star and followed it as they knew something amazing had just happened. When they arrived at the stable, they all celebrated the birth of our Lord Jesus and the very first Christmas Day.

Book Summary - Christmas Adventure, by Roderick Hunt

Written by Ying Wang Ting (Cindy) - Class 5A

This book is about a family. Dad and Mum were preparing for Christmas but the children didn't help so Dad was cross. Wilf and Wilma came to play. They had presents for Biff, Chip and Kipper.

The children had a magic key. The key began to glow. The magic key took them to the Land of Father Christmas. The children were excited and they all wanted special presents. They rang the doorbell but nobody came to the door. They looked for Father Christmas but he was not there. The children went into his house and Father Christmas was asleep in a chair. Suddenly, Father Christmas woke up. He hadn't put up his decorations and had no Christmas dinner. They helped him to find some decorations and put them up. They also prepared some food. Father Christmas was very grateful.

In the end, the magic took them home and they all helped Mum and Dad prepare for Christmas.

Christmas Cryptogram

Use the cryptogram to find out the Christmas words and then match them to the pictures.
