Tsz Wan Shan Catholic Primary School

Newsletter

Welcome!

We hope you had a great Christmas holiday and that you have been working hard after returning to school.

Chinese New Year is coming soon and I am sure you are looking forward to enjoying the time with your family and friends. In this issue, you will find many games and activities about Chinese New Year, as it is the most important time in Chinese calendar.

So let's learn a little more about Chinese New Year and practise our English at the same time.

Animal Riddles

Read the riddles and number the correct picture.

1. I have a white coat and I like to eat grass.
2. I am long, green and have no legs.
3. I am big and strong with horns on my head.
4. I am small, fast and like to eat cheese.
5. I have wings but I cannot fly. I like to eat seeds and corn.
6. I am tall and can run very fast.
7. I am orange with black strips. I have sharp teeth and claws.
8. I like to eat bones and do not like cats.
9. I am big, green and fierce. Fire comes from my mouth.
10. I am pink, eat anything and like to get dirty.
11. I have long ears, I hop and I like to eat carrots.
12. I live in trees and like to eat bananas.

- Snake
- Monkey
- Tiger
- Goat
- Horse
- Rat
- Ox
- Pig
- Rabbit
- Dog
- Dragon
- Rooster

Student Writing – Create a Creature

By Helen Wong, Natalie Chu, Sunny Chan and Yuki Leung (5E)

There is a monster that lives near Diamond Hill. It has a long neck and wide body with green and blue fur. It has strong jaws with sharp teeth, a sticky yellow tongue and one tusk. It has long legs with sharp claws, four purple humps on its back and a pouch for carrying a baby monster. It has seven whiskers and three eyes, one is yellow, one is blue and one is red. It likes to eat Tsz Wan Shan Catholic Primary School students and its name is the Sunny Monster.

Chinese New Year Crossword

Use the clues to find the Chinese New Year vocabulary hidden in the crossword.

1) These make loud banging sounds in the streets during Chinese New Year.

2) A Chinese New Year performance in which people pretend to be animals.

3) The third animal of the Chinese zodiac.

4) A coloured envelope containing money.

5) An orange fruit eaten at Chinese New Year.

6) This is the year of the _____.

7) They fly and explode to light up the sky.

8) People hang these beautiful red lights at Chinese New Year.

Contributions and comments

If you want to write something for the next issue, please tell Mr. Chard or email: amjchard@gmail.com